

COMFORTABLE LOUNGE WEAR FOR YOUNG MUSICIANS!

Thank you for your interest in Chameleon Couture Loungewear. my name is Juliette Cameron, and I created Chameleon Couture for my own children to have comfortable, unique clothing that can cross over the various activities in their lives. Whether it's piano practice, Wii play or studying, your kids will be showing their pride to be involved in music! Both of my children are playing the violin and studying Suzuki. I feel so strongly about how they have benefited from their program that I am offering to give a $10.00 donation for every set of loungewear (including a bag!) sold to your music school. Teachers who present the music collection to their students will be sent a sample of the lounge wear for display. Visit my website for full details. I hope many other children who have the gift of music in their lives will also be inspired wearing these.
